

Renu Green Energy
2801 M Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20007

To Whom It May Concern:

Please regard this as my official written notice to terminate all contractual arrangements that I have with Renu Green Energy regarding waste oil removal from _____ . Please consider this our 30-day notice to terminate the contract, on good terms, ending ____/____/_____.

The service being provided is no longer needed and we are writing for your container(s) to be removed. There are no terms of the contract there were satisfactory that we would like to report. There is currently no need for further negotiations for continued service.

With this termination, please have your bulk grease container(s) removed from our location within 30 days of the above date. Upon removal of said container(s), all obligations of both parties will be met. Containers left onsite after 45 days from the above date will be permanently moved from the premises. If you have any questions about this contract termination, please contact us by mail at the address below.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

